

11th annual Child Abuse and Neglect Conference

Monday, Oct. 24, and Tuesday, Oct. 25 Omni Hotel at CNN Center, Atlanta, Ga.

This event offers continued education in the prevention, recognition and treatment of child abuse and neglect.

Presented by the Stephanie V. Blank Center for Safe and Healthy Children at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta

11th annual Child Abuse and Neglect Conference

Day 1—Multidisciplinary focus on the commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) in Georgia

Day 2—Workshops by interest area: medical, prevention, mental health, child protection and CSEC investigations for attorneys and law enforcement

Day 2 workshops will include:

- Darkness to Light's Stewards of Children, a sexual abuse prevention program
- Developmental disabilities and abuse
- Intimate partner violence and its effects on children
- Period of PURPLE Crying, a new way to understand your baby's crying
- Recognition of child physical abuse

Special guest speakers include: Rachel Lloyd, M.A., Executive Director and Founder, Girls Educational and Mentoring Services; Sharon Cooper, M.D., of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a nationally recognized CSEC expert; and Richard S. Moultrie Jr., Assistant United States Attorney, Northern District of Georgia.

Visit www.choa.org/annualconference to request an electronic conference brochure. Registration opens Monday, Aug. 15. One-day registration is available. Space is limited. Contact Elizabeth Williams at 404-785-5004 or cpctraining@choa.org for more information.

Children's Healthcare of Atlanta 1699 Tullie Circle NE Atlanta, GA 30329-2319 NONPROFIT U.S. Postage PAID Atlanta, GA Permit No. 0525

©2011 Children's Healthcare of Atlanta Inc. All rights reserved.