PITCHING IN "FORE" CHILDREN'S

The fifth annual Tim Hudson Birdies and Baseball charity event will be Sunday, Feb. 21, to Tuesday, Feb. 23, 2010, in Orlando, Fla. This all-inclusive three-day, two-night baseball and golf event provides you and your guests with a memorable opportunity to experience spring training just like the Atlanta Braves. Your participation helps support the patients at the Aflac Cancer Center and Blood Disorders Service of Children's Healthcare of Atlanta.

Sunday's schedule includes golf at the prestigious ChampionsGate Golf Club's National Course to determine the Draw Party selections that evening. Monday, Feb. 22, the Tim Hudson Birdies and Baseball charity event takes to the fairways at the ChampionsGate Golf Club's International Course. You and your guests will spend an enjoyable afternoon playing golf with a Braves player.

Your spring training trip continues Tuesday, Feb. 23, as you and your guests spend the morning watching the Braves practice at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex. This will be followed by a special meet-and-greet with Tim Hudson.

Playing spots are limited. We look forward to having you join us for the fifth annual Tim Hudson Birdies and Baseball charity event to help kids with cancer and blood disorders.

THE PITCH

Proceeds from the fifth annual Tim Hudson Birdies and Baseball charity event benefit the Aflac Cancer Center and Blood Disorders Service of Children's, a national leader among childhood cancer, hematology, and blood and marrow transplant programs, serving infants to young adults. Recognized as one of the top childhood cancer centers in the country by U.S. News & World Report, the Aflac Cancer Center treats more than 350 new cancer patients each year and follows more than 2,500 patients with sickle cell disease, hemophilia and other blood disorders. Visit www.aflaccancercenter.org for more information.
