

Research communications intake form

Children'sSM
Healthcare of Atlanta

Answer the questions below with as much detail as possible while staying within each character limit. Note: Errors may occur if copying and pasting from a Word document. Do not use the following characters: (& \ ;).

Name:

Date:

Phone number:

Email address:

Titles (Children's, Emory University and Georgia Tech, if applicable):

Clinical area or specialty:

1. What is the name of the project, device, technology, drug or treatment that is being developed? Max character length is 256.

2. What stage of development is the project in? Max character length is 256.

3. In layman's terms, what is this project aiming to solve? Max character length is 600.

4. How will children be impacted by this project? How many kids do we anticipate will be impacted?

5. Are there any bench-to-bedside patient stories that will help illustrate this project?

6. How is the project being funded?

7. Are there any conflicts of interests or existing relationships that we should be aware of? Max character length is 256.

8. Name all individuals or institutions involved (e.g., Children's, Emory University, Georgia Tech, etc.) Max character length is 256.

9. When is the anticipated commercialization date, if any? Max character length is 256.

10. Will this device, technology or drug require U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) clearance or approval? Max character length is 256.

11. Who from the Pediatric Institute or Pediatric Technology Center operations team will be the liaison if additional information or coordination is needed? Max character length is 256.

12. Name everyone who will need to review and approve this content. Max character length is 256.