

About our Center

Employs more than 125 faculty members—more than 6 times our size in 2000—and nearly 50 advanced practice providers

Treated more than 9,800 patients across three campuses

Largest pediatric sickle cell disease program in the nation, treating more than 2,100 unique pediatric sickle cell disease patients each year

Cared for more than 2,225 kids in our Cancer Survivor Program over the last five years

More than 200 clinical studies available for patients, 30 of which were Aflac-initiated clinical studies

Performed 84 bone marrow transplants making us one of the largest pediatric BMT programs in the country

2024 total: 506

One of the largest pediatric cancer centers in the country, treating more than 500 new cancer patients in 2024

Developed new gene therapy clinical trial for hemophilia patients in India

choa.org/cancer

Precision Medicine Program allows for genomic profiling of high-risk tumors to tailor clinical care

Member of the prestigious Pediatric Brain Tumor Consortium (PBTC)—one of 16 centers nationwide

Cancer Predisposition Program provides comprehensive, pediatric-focused genetic counseling and surveillance, as well as cutting-edge genetic tools

One of approximately 20 premier pediatric oncology programs making up the COG Phase I and Pilot Consortium

Our Immunohematology Dysregulation Program, with more than 600 patients, is among the largest in the country, offering innovative targeted therapy and curative transplantation for children and young adults with complex immunoregulatory disorders

In collaboration with

Emory University, our researchers are developing new treatment options for patients who need it most

Provided 854 consults over the last five years through our Fertility Preservation Program

Developed a new treatment strategy called The Atlanta Protocol, which has been adopted internationally to care for hemophilia A patients with inhibitors

Pediatric component of the Winship Cancer Institute of Emory University, the first and only comprehensive NCI-designated cancer institute in Georgia

Offering proton therapy to pediatric oncology patients at the Emory Proton Therapy Center in collaboration with Winship Cancer Institute of Emory University

Visit choa.org/cancer to learn more about our center